SAINT FRANCIS SERVICE DOGS

MOMENTS LIKE THESE

by Luke Woody

This perfect day we will both treasure

Both basking in the ambient sky

Spying the river's water-mark measure

Muddy, wet game of fetch as sticks take flight

Black snake roads mimic the river's contours

Twisting turning up and down the hollers

And as it chisels through the river's floors

These moments are worth more than sand dollars

Deposited by the ocean's vastness

There's something old about the New River

Like the depths of a murky lake's Loch Ness

Questions shaken off like a cold shiver

Oh, how time stands still like deep-rooted trees

Ah, the simpleness of moments like these
